INTRODUCING ASM GLOBAL'S COMMUNITY ADVISORY BOARD

May 2021

Introducing the ASM Global Community Advisory Board (CAB)

Myisha (Williams) Boyce is the founding member and president of MYS Project Management, a Nevada based women- and minority-owned professional services organization. She has spent the past decade leading high-stakes programs and diverse teams across various technical industries.

Her drive for success is fueled by her passion for service though advocacy. She prides herself on being both a lifetime learner and educator. Her current focus is building and enhancing strategic professional partnerships that jointly benefit business and community.

Ashanti works in government affairs and public policy as the Advocacy Manager at Three Square where she provides government relations oversight in four counties. Her primary objective is advocating at the local, state, and federal levels for children, adults, and families experiencing food insecurity, with a focus on awareness of the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), childhood nutrition, and senior hunger.

As a proud member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated, Ashanti enjoys working at the grassroots level to strategically improve the community and help those in need.
